with Carissa Hobbs

Carissa grew up in Murrieta, California where she developed a love for dance and teaching. She attended Cal State University Fullerton earning a bachelor's in Child and Adolescent Development. She was on the dance team all 4 years and was a UDA College national champion for 2 years in Division 1 Jazz. She was on the USA Dance staff for 3 years teaching and choreographing for different high schools along the West Coast. Carissa is now a dance teacher and professional cheerleader with the KC Chiefs! She can't wait to dance with everyone at Center Stage Academy.
